22. During 3 Months, to begin from the Day on which the Treaty ſhall be ſign'd, it ſhall be permitted us to withdraw all the Proviſions and Ammunitions of War that are in the Places, and the other Effects belonging to the two Crowns, to carry them to Genoa, Venice, or Suza, by Water or by Land, with neceſſary Paſſports for their Security, we paying the Carriage of Waggons or Boats which ſhall be furniſh'd us; with Liberty however to treat and agree in the Places, either with the Emperour's Commiſſaries, or with private Perſons or Jews, that will buy them. As for the Proviſions belonging to the Enemy, they ſhall be allow'd to ſell them, it being impoſſible to furniſh Carriage for them; they ſhall be permitted likewiſe to leave Commiſſaries for 3 Months to ſell and even their Accompts of the ſaid Effects; the Ammunition ſhall all be left in the Places, except what is allow'd for the Train of Field-Pieces and the Cannon granted to the Garriſons, and what is agreed to be diſtributed to the Troops.

23. on

on the Spot. *The French Prisoners that are mark'd in a List separately sign'd, and actually in the Hands of the Imperialists, shall be deliver'd up, as well as some others that are detain'd in Roveredo, l' Abadia, and by the Body under General Wetzel: As for the Spaniards, Italians, Swiss, and Grisons, they shall be deliver'd up likewise, from a Collonel downwards, except those that are minded to take on in the Service of the Emperour or of his Royal Highness, or to quit all military Service. 27. Bread, Forrage, and Lodging shall be furnish'd gratis by the Enemy to all the abovesaid Troops, Horse and Foot, and to the Retinues of the General Officers of the Troops, Provisions, and Artillery, in all Places through which they pass, of which an Account shall be given by the Intendant, and the Troops shall rest one Day in four, and march but 10 Italian Miles a Day. Bread and Oats or other Corn for the Horses cannot be given gratis, when the Enemy pretend to make their own Profit of the Magazines that are in the Places; so they must either pay for what shall be furnish'd them, or deliver out a certain Quantity of Meal and Corn, which shall be proportion'd to them each daily. To the Frontiers of Piemont they shall have Hay gratis, and where there is none the Enemy must be content with Straw, or such other kind of Forrage as can be had: Their Marching 10 Italian Miles a Day, and resting every fourth Day, is likewise agreed.

30. As for the Debts the Prince of Vaudemont may owe in Milan and the Milaneze, he will satisfy them, by giving valuable Security for Payment within 6 Months, provided all his Moveables and Effects that have been siez'd be restor'd, and that his Servants be permitted to pack up the said Moveables and Effects and send them with Passports to Genoa or Suza, by Carriage which shall be furnish'd on their paying for it. M. Carlos Semple and la Gorge, two of his Servants, or any other, whom he shall send to make Inquiry after the Moveables and Goods belonging to him, and which may have been taken by private Persons in the Disorder wherein he left his House, shall be allow'd to use their best Diligence in such a Search; and in that Case Prince Eugene is desir'd to assist them with his Authority and Orders. No Difficulty is made of causing the Prince of Vaudemont's Moveables to be restor'd to him, provided his Creditors have Security and Satisfaction given them; and Prince Eugene consents to interpose his Authority, that the whole may be adjusted with Equity and Justice.

31. The same thing shall be granted with regard to all Moveables and Effects belonging to the Domestick Servants of the Prince of Vaudemont that shall be found in Milan or the Milaneze; and they shall be allow'd 3 Months to remove them to Genoa or Suza. To which end the said Domesticks shall send their Valets or go thither themselves, to make Search for the said Moveables and Goods, [Houshold Furniture or Cloaths], and they shall be furnish'd with Passports for 3 Months, as well for going to Milan as for sending their Effects to Genoa or Suza. Agreed, except what was taken or made away at first.

32. All General Officers and others of what Nation soever, who left any Baggage in the Towns of Piemont or the Milaneze, shall be allow'd likewise to send them to Genoa or Suza, with Passports which shall be granted them on Demand. Agreed, except what was confiscated or made away at first.

33. Care shall be taken for the Subsistence and Security of the Troops and all the Equipage, in their March to Suza. Care shall be taken for their Security in their March; as for their Subsistance, it has been answer'd in other preceeding Articles.

34. The Prince of Vaudemont demands of the State of Milan the Payment of 50000 Crowns, arising to him from his Stipends as Governour General of the Milaneze, and due to him in the Month of September 1706, before the Enemy entred that State. 'Tis agreed that the Accompts of the Prince of Vaudemont's Ordinary and Extraordinary Salaries as Governour of the Milaneze, shall be stated to the Time express'd in the Article, and in Case any Arrears be due to him, Prince Eugene will procure him Satisfaction from the State of Milan.

35. The said State of Milan shall pay to the Undertakers who have furnish'd Artillery, Bread, Ammunition, Forrage, Corn, and other things, what is due to them, in the Manner stipulated in the Assignments given them by the Magistrates and the State of Milan. This is a Matter in which the State of Milan and the Magistracy are concern'd, and shall be decided according to Justice; the Enemy have no longer any thing to do with it.

36. A Passport shall be given to M. D. Jean de Herrera, great Chancellor, who is at Bologna, to joyn the Troops with his Equipage, and march with them or separately as he shall think fit, directly to Suza or Genoa, by the shortest Way; he shall likewise be allow'd to withdraw the Effects he may have left in Milan or the Milaneze. Agreed, As to his Effects, on the same Foot with what is said to the preceeding Points.

37. In delivering up the Modeneze, it shall be permitted us to oblige the Consulte of Modena to give an Account of what is due to the King, to the Day of the Evacuation of the Citadel of Modena, from the Farms of Modena, and from the Notes made payable at the End of September last by the said Consulte, for the Sum of 22000 Livres, that is to say 12000 to M. de Chemerault, 6000 to the Chevalier de Luxembourg, and 4000 to M. d' Esclainvillers. The Citadel of Modena having capitulated, this Article is referr'd to that Capitulation.

38. All Officers, Soldiers, and other Persons of whatever Nation, Caracter or Profession, as also their Families, shall be intirely at Liberty to follow the Troops, or to continue in Italy in their Employments or Trades, with Freedom to carry with them their Effects, or to sell them within 3 Months; nor shall any who have serv'd the two Crowns in any Quality whatever, or adher'd to them, be molested in any Manner, on any Pretence. Agreed, except that those who will stay after the Expiration of 3 Months, shall have Need of a new Permission.

39. The Generals and other Officers, and other Persons, that are in the Service of the two Crowns, shall enjoy the Estates they have in the Milaneze, the Monferrat, the Modeneze, and the Mantuan, or shall have Liberty for a whole Year to dispose of them by Sale or otherwise. Agreed that they shall have six Months time to take what Course they shall think best.

40. That part of the Monferrat which belongs to the Duke of Mantua shall be restor'd to him, or as an Equivalent for it Cremona, and the Cremoneze, with the same Neutrality in which he shall be left possess'd of Mantua and his Dominions, in which are included the Territories of Guastalla and Bozolo; and he shall be at Liberty to put what neutral Garrison he pleases into Mantua and Cremona when the Troops of the two Crowns shall march out of them. Refus'd in every Particular; 'tis promis'd however, that the Privileges of the Inhabitants of Mantua and the Jews living in it, shall be maintain'd.

41. Mirandola and its Territories shall likewise be restor'd to the Duke of Mirandola. Answer'd by the preceeding Article.

42. All the Boats and Matersals necessary for making Bridges over the Rivers which the Troops are to pass in their March to Suza, shall be made and furnish'd at the Charge of the Enemy, who shall give Orders to that purpose, as also for the sending down of Boats forthwith for finishing the Bridge of Cremona. Agreed.

43. Hostages shall be given on both sides, till the present Treaty be intirely executed, of which his Royal Highness of Savoy and Prince Eugene shall be Guarantees in its full Extent. *Agreed for 2 Officers to be Hostages, viz. a Major General with a Collonel or Brigadier: And to the Guaranty.
